Contest Rules

You must be a trucker, trucker's spouse or trucker's relative to enter. The article can be an essay or short story but must deal with trucking. The work must be previously unpublished and may be fiction or nonfiction, funny or sad. Entries must be 2000 words or less.

Winners will be determined by the editorial staff of Truckers News. The three winning entries and selected honorable-mention winners will be published in Truckers News, beginning with the June 2009 issue.

Publishing rights (either in print, audio tape or other media) to winning and honorable-mention selections become the property of Truckers News in consideration for prizes awarded. Entries will not be returned. Winners will be responsible for payment of taxes on prizes. Judges' decisions shall be final. Contest not open to employees of Truckers News, their families or relatives.
